Project Description

Germany is the most populated country in the EU, and is a key U.S. partner. U.S. Embassy Berlin is looking for a Virtual Student eIntern to help track and analyze law enforcement developments (such as significant arrests, prosecutions, sentences, and cyber attacks), including regional differences within Germany, the impact of migration patterns, and other emerging trends. U.S. Embassy Berlin's Economic Section will coordinate with the eIntern on goals and objectives, and it will specify benchmarks and timelines for this project. The eIntern will search and track available press clips and open source materials, including official GoG government websites, non-governmental websites, universities, think tanks, and media on any information.
